

Holy Trinity, 2010

Dear Readers,

Hi. Here's our schedule. It is the end of our Fifty Days of Easter already! Unbelievable! Happy Memorial Day. I hope you have some nice summer plans brewing and maybe some of you are even going to Ecuador! Congratulations on graduation to Allie Richthammer who is going to St. Mary's and Tim Kennedy who is going to Notre Dame.

We welcome our new Readers...Chris Hausmann, Terry Paukert, Karen Saverine and Kristin Sorensen-Brugh. Please remember Beverly Jennings in your prayer. She died a few short weeks ago. She was one of our Readers at 8:00 mass.

Please keep this schedule in your Reader's Book or Bible or write down dates etc in your calendars. It is posted on our website as well.

The main office does not send reminders but you will still receive a call from the Coordinator. You can always check the monthly schedule in the sacristy and at the main doors – the full schedule is on the web.. The mass coordinator will be calling you closer to the weekend you are assigned. I appreciate the fact that you swap with others so you don't lose your turn to read. That helps the Coordinator a great deal, but don't forget to call him/her of the change.

Some Reminders:

- Please call me or put a note in the Coordinators' Book in the sacristy if you will be away for an extended period of time or if you change your telephone number. The office doesn't always forward that information to me.
- Please call the coordinator if you need a replacement or if you have gotten one.
- I've been including the readings in your schedule so that you can see how, through many weeks, a certain chapter of scripture may be read. So, when you prepare, look at the readings on the Sunday before and after yours so that you can see the connection if there is one.

Thank you all for enabling us to hear and understand the Word of God and for proclaiming it so that it comes alive for us and with such love and care. You do your ministry so very well!

May you have a great summer and may relaxing bring you closer to God! It sure does me!
Keep up the good work!

God's peace,

Mary Ann La Plante (243-3440) / (386-1070 c)
